Journal Article Publication Policy 1.5 For authors whose manuscripts are accepted for publication

This policy applies to each author of an accepted paper. Please forward to each author.

1. ILP receives US $45 per article from each author to help defray the administrative cost of publication.
2. The author is waived this fee, if he/she currently does not have a subscription and immediately subscribes to the journal at the regular rate of US $99 per year. US subscribers pay $14.95 and international subscribers pay $39.95 for shipping and handling for the 4 issues in a year.
3. One and only one author from each organization is waived from this fee, if his/her organization is currently not a subscriber of the journal, and immediately subscribes to it. The organizational subscription rate is US $299 per year. US subscribers pay $14.95 and international subscribers pay $39.95 for shipping and handling for the 4 issues in a year.

Implementation: The editor-in-chief will send this policy to the Author(s). Each Author will then execute and act on this form immediately as indicated below. Concurrently, Author(s) will inform the editor-in-chief of their action.
